

WHICH WINDOW TINT IS RIGHT FOR MY CAR

Watch related video »

That's a question we hear a lot. Madico® provides swatch samples in a wide range of shades and colors to facilitate customer selection. And we're there to answer any questions with regard to window film product styles and performance.

While more than happy to be helpful guides in the selection process, the Madico dealer's role is to assist the customer in making a final selection. After all, it's the customer who'll be experiencing the product benefits and aesthetics day-in and day-out.

The one mandatory contribution the Madico dealer makes in the process is to ensure any customer's final selection is in accordance with the state/province laws in which your vehicle is registered. So, in addition to reviewing our automotive window film products on this website, we highly recommend visiting our dealer directory to find a local authorized Madico dealer to spend time with to help make your window film selection.
